A Note from the Editor:

The high professional standards of SOCIOMETRY are maintained by our hard working Editorial Board who annually sift through and evaluate a small mountain of manuscripts. The press of submissions has been so great that we have asked a number of other readers to assist us in evaluating manuscripts on an ad hoc basis. I wish to thank them for responding to our call to contribute their professional energies and judgment to the task.

A list of ad hoc reviewers who have served during my tenure as Editor follows:
